- On 3 October at a meeting of the Central Committee of the North Korean Labor Party (NKLP), the decision was made to call a party congress in either December 1952 or January 1953. The main objective of this congress will be to purge the nationalists and anti-KIM Il-song elements from the NKLP. KIM Il-song is in possession of this purge list prepared by PANG Hak-se, Minister of Social Security.
- At this Central Committee meeting, in the report of Labor Party activities covering the period from 1 January to 1 October 1952, KIM Il-song said that party workers place the blame on the war for their inefficiency in party organization and this tendency to blame the war influences party workers at all levels.
- At this 3 October meeting the decision was made to assign the 30 North Korean Labor Party members who recently completed training in Moscow to high posts in the North Korean government, Labor Party, and army. These party members are to return to P'yongyang from Moscow with HO Ka-i.<sup>1</sup>

- [REDACTED] Comment. On 20 September HO Ka-i and a small staff left P'yongyang to attend the 19th Congress of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union in Moscow, according to [REDACTED]
